

Liver Center Mini-Symposium

Friday,
October 16, 2026

9:00 am – 5:00 pm

Millberry
Conference Room

Chronic Hepatitis B in 2026: From Scientific Discovery to Clinical Innovation

This mini-symposium will highlight emerging advances and evolving strategies in the management and cure of chronic hepatitis B. Sessions will explore the current treatment landscape, including novel therapeutic approaches and treatment discontinuation.

Featured Speakers

Jane McKeating, PhD
Professor of Molecular Virology,
University of Oxford

Ashwin Balagopal, MD
Associate Professor of Medicine,
Johns Hopkins Medicine

Jordan Feld, MD, MPH, FAASLD
Professor of Medicine,
University of Toronto

Stewart Cooper, MD
Chief, Division of General & Transplant
Hepatology, California Pacific Medical Center and President, California Liver
Institute

Yasmin Ibrahim, MD, PhD, MBA
Associate Professor, Baruch S Blumberg
Institute & Hepatitis B Foundation

Robert Schwartz, MD, PhD
Chief, Division of Gastroenterology,
Washington University School of Medicine

Gabriela Fragiadakis, PhD
Associate Professor of Medicine, UCSF

Grace Haser, MD
Clinical Instructor, Medicine, UCSF

Jillian Jespersen, PhD
Professional Researcher, Medicine, UCSF

Mark Anderson, PhD
Principal Scientist, Discovery Research, Abbott

Richard So
Executive Director, Hep B Free

CALIFORNIA
LIVER INSTITUTE

